IT IS TIME!!!

If you think you are part of the best improv group or improv team in Atlanta, if you think it's time for your team to have a 10-week run of shows, if you like winning money, then it is time to show The ATL what you got!

The 2017 Inaugural Atlanta Improv LEAGUE is now open for submissions.

The competition will be made up of no more than 15 teams competing over 1 weeks for a Grand Prize of $2,500 (2nd=$300, 3rd=$150, 14th=$75) AND the title of "ATLANTA's IMPROV LEAGUE CHAMPION OF 2017!!!"

Starting on Monday, JUNE 12th at noon you can register for the AIL at AtlantaImprovLEAGUE.com. Each team will be required to pay a $75 LEAGUE Entry Fee.

The LEAGUE will take place over a 11-week period starting on Thursday, June 29, and ending Saturday, September 16th at 11pm at the Village Theatre. During the 11-week League competition, a team will compete in 10 shows. Actors will only be allowed to perform on two teams maximum and will need to designate a preferred team or "Home Team". No actor will be allowed to perform against a team he or she is on.

Each LEAGUE Show will be one-hour in length and consist of three teams each performing a 20-minute set. At the end of each hour-long LEAGUE Show, the audience will vote for their favorite team. Teams will then be awarded First, Second and Third place points. Teams will then be ranked by their overall won vs loss record.

During the 11-week schedule, LEAGUE shows will take place at The Village Theatre and Highwire Comedy Company on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

After the 11-week regular season, teams will be ranked by their overall record, then overall points, then head to head competition record and finally a coin toss to seed the top 14 teams in a playoff style weekend tournament. Only the top 14 teams will make the weekend-long playoff tournament. The top two ranking teams (#1 and #2) will be given a bye for the first round of the playoffs. The last place (15th place) team will be eliminated.
